

Preferred Partner Program

Are you prepared if a key player leaves your organization? Are you expecting significant growth?

Executek's Preferred Partner Program gives companies peace of mind, knowing they have a talent acquisition business partner at-the-ready. Whether you have an unexpected opening at a key position or a newly developed role which requires immediate recruiting assistance, our Preferred Partners receive priority care and attention from our expert staff. In addition to discounted recruiting fees, annual program membership provides our Preferred Partners support with position reviews, job descriptions, retention analysis, and compensation research.

Executek's Preferred Partners receive the following privileges:

- Priority recruiting responsiveness
- Discounted search fees
- Predetermined amount of position reviews with profile or job descriptions created per year
- Predetermined amount of compensation / retention analyses per year
- First look at recently available talent
